The Nut Tree is a large Black Walnut standing on the State Highway near Vacaville, California. It was planted in 1859 on the old Immigrant Trail which the highway now follows.

P.S. Better take it easy Lee.
If you can't come this weekend
I'll come up to see you.

Hello Lee

Sure had a swell time in Sacramento Sunday. I milked a cow for the first time ever & enjoyed & really had plenty fun. I hope you are feeling fine. I hope you can call me before the end of week. As ever Sis. Rosie
